Highlights of the IISc, Bangalore Event include:

- Plenary Lectures by Turing laureate Prof. Raj Reddy (CMU, USA) and by Prof. Kurt Mehlhorn (Max Planck Institute, Germany)
- Talks by leading researchers and professionals on Turing's pioneering contributions
- Special audio-visual session on Turing Award Winners by Doctoral students
- An exhibition on History of Computing
- Screening of ‘Code-Breaker’ - A Biographical Movie on Alan Turing
- An online programming contest and a Turing Quiz for students
- Panel session on Computer Science / IT Education in India

The venue of the event is the historic Faculty Hall in the Indian Institute of Science, which completed its centenary in 2009.

Highlights of the IIT, Kanpur Event include:

- H V Sahasrabuddhe Endowment Lecture on “Inflections in Computing” by Prof. Kurt Mehlhorn (Max Planck Institute, Germany)
- Talks by leading researchers & professionals on Turing’s pioneering contributions
- Screening of ‘Code-Breaker’ - A Biographical Movie on Alan Turing

The events will be a unique opportunity for Computer Science/Information Technology Faculty; Doctoral, Master's, & Senior Undergraduate Students in Computer Science; Researchers & Professionals in Information Technology R & D, to get exposed to path-breaking technical contributions of the Founding Father of Theoretical Computer Science.

Event details are available on the website http://lcm.csa.iisc.ernet.in/turing-event

For more information on the event, send email to CSI Bangalore Chapter at csi_bc@yahoo.com

Please visit: http://www.csi-india.org/web/csi/alan-turing-special